History Of Speaking To School Students.

For 35 years, Michael Bortolotto has delivered his one day educational speaking program in 3,400 schools to students from Kindergarten to Grades12 throughout North America.

"We had the recent pleasure of having Michael present to our students. It can be difficult for inspirational speakers to engage the middle school student but after watching the reaction to Michael's presentation, I was astounded at the level of authentic connection he was able to foster.

Michael's Top 4 Requested Presentations.

The Truth About Apples & Pineapples.

Length: 30 min. for students in Gr. K to 3

The purpose of this presentation is to teach children to stop another from judging one another by skin colour, dress, size, shape, race, culture, gender, etc. Instead teach and inspire each student to see one another from the inside-out by asking questions to understand their personalities, interests, abilities, and unique differences.

Why Do You Need Social Inclusion?

Length: 60 min. for students from Gr. 6 to 12

There is more to social inclusion, then seeing all people as valued and important. In this presentation, the student's will learn why "Social Inclusion" can assist them in raising their self-esteem and self-worth, build their inner strengths and abilities, and how to be accepted and seen as a contributor in school and throughout society.

Be A Friend, Throw The Perfect Pass.

Length: 50 min. for students from Gr. 4 to 7

The primary focus behind delivering this presentation is to empower students to use the simple tools of smiling, asking questions, listening, and understanding, to break-down the differences and barriers which lead to social exclusion and abusive actions of bullying.

Using Your Power Responsibly.

Length: 60 min. for students from Gr. 6 to 12

Through personal experiences and examples, Michael teaches students how to understand the power of a single thought. Equipped with this knowledge, they will be better able to create thoughts and actions that lead to kind, friendly, inclusive, and safe situations, rather than mean and divisive ones.
